SUBJECT : Experience Record Applicable to [redacted]

1. In furtherance of our conversation of this date, there is attached in duplicate the experience record of subject individual for consideration of yourself and other officers of the organization.

2. For your information subject individual is a social acquaintance of the undersigned and while I know little of his professional ability, I understand that his employment during the years 1950-51 with the United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Economics was performed in a most satisfactory manner. I am well acquainted with one official in Washington D. C. who could and would answer many questions that may arise with respect to this individual's capabilities in other fields of endeavor, and will be pleased to pass on the name and telephone number of such individual on request.
